Peter Schönhofer Appointed New CFO of Exyte AG

Stuttgart, 28 August 2020. The Supervisory Board of Exyte AG has appointed Peter Schönhofer as new CFO effective today. Mr. Schönhofer is succeeding Margaret Lassarat who had requested the Supervisory Board to relieve her of her responsibilities for private reasons due to the Covid-19 pandemic in the USA. The Supervisory Board responded to this request with approval.

Peter Schönhofer has a degree in Business Administration from the University of Economics in Vienna and previously held positions at Unilever, Siemens in Austria and Nokia Siemens Networks where he acted as CFO, as well as MAGNA before assuming the position of Managing Director of M+W Group GmbH, the parent company of Exyte AG, in 2018.

Georg Stumpf, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Exyte AG, said: "With Peter Schönhofer, a highly respected and strong leader is taking over the finance division. Exyte AG has been developing extremely positively over the last few years with order intake, EBIT, and order backlog increasing steadily. Despite the Covid-19 pandemic, Exyte AG has been able to grow notably. Mr. Schönhofer will contribute greatly to the continued success of the company."
